Registration:

You are responsible for ensuring you are registered in the correct courses. If you are not registered in this course, the Department will not release any of your marks until your registration is corrected. You may check your timetable by using the Login on the Student Services website at <https://student.uwo.ca>. If you notice a problem, please contact your home Faculty Academic Counsellor immediately.

Prerequisite Note:

The prerequisite(s) for this course is (are) Economics....

Prerequisite(s) for your course can be found in the Western Calendar at:

<http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/Courses.cfm?Subject=ECONOMIC&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID>

You are responsible for ensuring that you have successfully completed all course prerequisites, and that you have not taken any anti-requisite courses. Lack of prerequisites may not be used as a basis for appeal. If you are found to be ineligible for a course, you may be removed from it at any time and you will receive no adjustment to your fees. This decision cannot be appealed.

If you find that you do not have the course prerequisites, it is in your best interest to drop the course well before the end of the add/drop period. Your prompt attention to this matter will not only help protect your academic record, but will ensure that spaces become available for students who require the course in question for graduation.

Course Objectives:

This course is an introduction financial markets, financial institutions and monetary policy. In the first part of the course emphasis will be placed on the application of economic analysis to understanding the determination of interest rates and asset prices.

The second part of the course will be concerned with central banking, inflation and wider issues currently facing monetary authorities worldwide.

Course Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course students will:

- Understand the basic mechanics of a monetary system
- Be able to understand the communications of central bankers to the public and critically assess them.
- Be able to evaluate the importance of financial institutions in the wider economy.
- Be able to evaluate the linkage between the policies of central banks and financial markets.
- Gain exposure to risk management techniques used by financial institutions.
- Understand the current issues surrounding the regulation of banks.

Textbook(s):

The Economics of Money, Banking and Financial Markets, Miskin Frederic and Apostolos Serletis 6th Canadian edition, Addison Wesley, 2016 or the new 7th edition.

Your purchase must also include access to Pearson's MyEcon Lab.

My EconLab will be used for testing. Registration details will be provided on our course OWL site.

Grading:

The distribution of the marks is as follows:

Midterm I	30%
Midterm II	30%
Final	40%

The midterms are modular and the final is comprehensive. The material for all tests and exams consists of the topics covered in the text (see below), any assigned readings (I often post articles from The Economist, Financial Times, WSJ, etc...) and the material covered in the lectures. Some of the topics covered in the lectures, including problems done in class, may not appear in the text. Students are reminded that they are responsible for this material.

The exams must be written on the assigned dates. Make up exams will not be given.

In extraordinary circumstances, which must be supported by verifiable official documentation, the marks allocated to the missed midterm will be redistributed to the final exam.

Assignments

There are no problem sets that are you must hand in for marks. However, I do problems in class and assign problems from time to time. You are advised to do the problems and, more importantly, understand the meaning of the results and relevance of the problem solving process. Often, but not necessarily, exam questions are loosely based on these examples.

Additional readings/videos may be assigned as the course progresses- THESE READINGS/VIDEOS ARE SUBJECT TO EXAMINATION.

Attendance

The course will be taught entirely in-person. All lectures will appear on a weekly basis just as if we were in a classroom. You are expected to attend every lecture in its entirety. Thus, attendance is mandatory. Not all topics are covered in the textbook and any problems or topics covered in class may form the basis of examination questions.

All announcements concerning the course are announced in-person in class. Absence from class is not an excuse for not knowing about any adjustments to course material or assessments.

Failure to keep up with course changes will not be considered for grade accommodations.

Important Dates

Midterm I May 31
Midterm II June 9
Exam TBA

The dates of the midterm are tentative and must be confirmed by Exam Central. Once this confirmation is received students will be advised of the finalized date. The date and time of the exam is set by the Registrar's Office.

The Midterms and Exams will be multiple-choice and written online via MyEcon Lab. There will also be a short-answer component and you will submit your short answers via our course OWL site. The midterms will be for 2-hours during class time, i.e., 2pm-4pm. More details will be given in-class.

Course Outline

PLEASE NOTE ---- the following list of topics and chapters is tentative. Deletions and additions, as well as the sequence of topics, may change as the course progresses. It is incumbent on course participants to be aware of these changes. Absence from class will not be accepted as an excuse for not knowing about any changes.

N.B. This course is subject to course grade adjustments. This is a departmental policy NOT the policy of the professor. The professor has NO control over this policy. Adjustments are made to maintain the value of your degree. Your grade may be adjusted up or down. These adjustments will normally be made at the end of the semester after all grades have been processed. Students who are opposed to this policy should not take this course.

Please Note
Department & University Policies for Summer 2022

The University expects all students to take responsibility for their own Academic Programs. Students should also check their registration to ensure they are enrolled in the correct courses.

1. Guidelines, policies, and your academic rights and responsibilities are posted online in the current Western Academic Calendar at: <http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca>. Claiming that “you didn’t know what to do” is not an acceptable excuse for not following the stated policies and procedures.
2. Students must familiarize themselves with the “Rules of Conduct for Examinations” http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/exam/administration.pdf.
3. Cheating as an academic offence: Students are responsible for understanding what it means to “cheat.” The Department of Economics treats cheating incidents very seriously and will investigate any suspect behavior. Students found guilty will incur penalties that could include a failing grade or being barred from future registration in other Economics courses or programs. The University may impose further penalties such as suspension or expulsion.
4. Plagiarism: Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. When taking an idea/passage from another author, it must be acknowledged with quotation marks where appropriate and referenced with footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is an academic offence (see Scholastic Discipline for Undergraduate Students in the Western Calendar at http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_20).

Western University uses software to check for plagiarism and students may be required to electronically submit their work. Those found guilty will be penalized as noted in point 3.

5. It is a Department of Economics policy that NO assignments be dated, stamped or accepted by staff. Students must submit assignments to the instructor.
6. Appeals: University policies and procedures for appealing a mark can be found in the Student Academic Appeals section in the current Western Academic Calendar at: http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_14. Please note the relevant deadlines.

Department of Economics procedures for appealing a mark can be found here: https://economics.uwo.ca/undergraduate/program_counselling/responsibilities_policies.html#appeals. The Department will not consider an appeal unless an attempt has been made to settle the matter with the instructor first. Students who remain dissatisfied with the outcome may proceed to submit an appeal to econugrd@uwo.ca. Please follow the instructions and use the appeal form shown in the above link.

7. Systematic adjustments of a class grade distribution (either up or down) can occur in Economics courses. The fact that grades have been adjusted is not grounds for an appeal.
8. Note the following add and drop deadlines:

Deadline to add an intersession course: Tuesday May 17, 2022
Deadline to drop an intersession course: Monday June 6, 2022

Policy Regarding Makeup Tests and Final Examinations

Faculty of Social Science policy states that oversleeping or misreading an exam schedule is NOT grounds for a makeup. This rule applies to midterm and final exams in the Department of Economics.

Policies Regarding Academic Accommodation

- The Faculty of Social Science's policies on academic accommodation are found at https://counselling.ssc.uwo.ca/procedures/academic_consideration.html
- Accommodation for Students with Disabilities: Students with disabilities or accessibility challenges should work with Accessible Education (formerly SSD, see http://academicsupport.uwo.ca/accessible_education/index.html), which provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive testing. The accommodation policy can be found here: Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.
- Rewriting Exams and Retroactive Reweighting are NOT Permitted: Students who proceed to write a test or examination must be prepared to accept the mark. Rewriting tests or examinations, or retroactive reweighting of marks, is not permitted. Self-Reported Absences cannot be used once a student has proceeded to start to write a test or exam.
- Self-Reported Absences: Students will have one opportunity during summer term to receive academic consideration if they self-report a missed assessment using the online self-reported absence portal, provided the following conditions are met: the assessment is missed due to an absence of no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth 30% or less of the student's final grade. Students are expected to contact their instructors within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence, unless noted otherwise on the syllabus. Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances:
 - for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., final exams)
 - absence of a duration greater than 48 hours
 - assessments worth more than 30% of the student's final grade
 - if the student has opened or started the test or exam
 - if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the fall/winter terms

If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are not met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate (SMC) if the absence is medical or provide appropriate documentation if there are compassionate grounds for the absence in question. Students are encouraged to contact their Faculty academic counselling office for more information about the relevant documentation. It is strongly recommended that students notify the instructor as soon as possible, ideally before the assessment, when they become aware of an absence. University policy is that students must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by the SMC or immediately upon their return from their documented absence. Failure to follow University policy and procedures may result in denial of academic accommodation and a grade of zero.

- Self-Isolation Reporting Tool: Students who are required to self-isolate due to COVID-19 should complete the Self-Isolation Reporting Tool (SIRT). By using this, students are attesting that they must self-isolate as a result of direction obtained from a COVID-19 Self-Assessment. The information entered on this tool will be used by Academic Counselling to assess your need for academic considerations. Students should note that this tool is intended for self-isolation due to COVID-19 only and those who complete this form will be expected to remain off-campus for at least five days. Students are expected to contact their instructors within 24 hours of the end of the period of their self-isolation period, unless noted otherwise on the syllabus.
- Documentation for Accommodation: Individual instructors are not permitted to receive documentation directly from a student, whether in support of an application for consideration on medical grounds or for other reasons. All required documentation for absences that are not covered by the Self-Reported Absence Policy must be submitted to the Academic Counselling office of a student's Home Faculty.
- Western University policy on Consideration for Student Absence is available here: Policy on Academic Consideration for Student Absences - Undergraduate Students in First Entry Programs.
- Student Medical Certificate (SMC): This form is available here: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf
- Religious Accommodation: Students should consult the University's list of recognized religious holidays and should give reasonable notice in writing, prior to the holiday, to the Instructor and an Academic Counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance. Additional information is given in the Western Multicultural Calendar.

Policy Regarding Class Attendance and Engagement: If the instructor deems a student's attendance or engagement in the class to be unsatisfactory, that student may be prohibited from writing the final examination. Examples of unsatisfactory class engagement include frequent absences from an in-person or synchronous online class, lack of assignment submissions, and inadequate use of online course materials. Instructors who intend to make use of this policy will notify the student in advance.

Statement on Mental Health and Support Services: Students under emotional/mental distress should visit https://uwo.ca/health/mental_wellbeing/ for more information and a complete list of resources on how to obtain help.

Statement on Remote Proctoring: While Western intends to hold most classes, mid-terms and finals in-person, the London-Middlesex Health unity may require western to teach in a remote format. If this occurs, all assessments will be done remotely and may involve the use of remote proctoring software (i.e., Proctorio, ProctorTrack). Instructors will provide information on the details should the need arise.
